

USC Chamber Singers Give Varied Concert

USC Chamber Singers will perform at El Camino College, tomorrow, 8:30 p.m., in the Camus Theater.

Selections include Caldara's "Who Is Man" and "Christmas Day" by Holst. Music will range from religious to folk songs.

Much of the repertoire of this group includes the 16th century madrigal and motet; however, the literature will be representative of all the style periods. Miss Jane Skinner, El Camino choir director, noted "Directing the group will be Dr. Charles C. Hirt, renowned musician and instructor. Dr. Hirt has directed the University of Southern California singers for the past 15 years.

USC's Chamber Singers have sung on nationally broadcast television programs. Their tours have taken them as far east as St. Louis and several times to Mexico.

Following the concert program, the El Camino Chorale will host a reception for the Chamber Singers and Dr. Hirt in El Camino's "Green Room."

Tickets may be purchased in El Camino's student store. They are $2 for the general public. All seats will be reserved.

Special Education Expert To Address School Session

Dr. John Howe, coordinator of special education of Los Angeles County schools, will speak to parents and friends of the Scherich's South Bay School, 1108 Tulita, Redondo Beach, on Dec. 7, at 8 p.m. Dr. Howe will speak on visual perception.

During the past six years, Dr. Howe has spent a great deal of time working in this area of special education. He was the coordinator of the state pilot project for the neurologically handicapped children, and is considered one of the authorities on children with learning problems.

Parents, teachers, doctors, psychologists, or any person interested in hearing Dr. Howe should contact Warren H. Scherich, director of Scherich's South Bay School, at FR 5-0469 for reservations.

Week Emphasizing Foreign Missions Concludes Sunday

The Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita will climax a week of foreign mission emphasis on Sunday. The pastor, Robert A. Wells, will speak at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. worship services on the subject, "Can You Top This?"

"This message take the thrilling experiences of the missionary movement and weaves them into the scriptural plan to win the world for Christ. The modern missionary movement began with William Carey as he went from England to India. He was in India seven years before winning his first convert. From this beginning to the present reads like a success story," Mr. Wells will state.

The Woman's Missionary Union begins a season of prayer for foreign missions that will continue through Dec. 7. On Dec. 9 Missionary Tom Tipton from Tanganyika will speak at both morning services.

The 7:30 p.m. message by the pastor this Sunday will be "Luke, the Beloved Physician."

"A major place was given to the laymen in the advance of the early Christian movement. One of the dangers of our day is to lose sight of the place of the man in the pew. The physician, the lawyer, the laborer, and the housewife have a place in the cause of Christ," the pastor will remind his congregation.

Tartar Grad Ending Navy Career at 41

Leroy E. Stecker, 41, a Navy chief, is retiring from the service after 23 years. He is the son of Mrs. Robert Riggles of 2042 Kathy Way.

Stecker resides in Santa Barbara with his wife, Eleanor, and two children, Diana and Jeffrey. He was graduated from Torrance High School in 1939 and entered the service that same year.

The Navyman hopes to go into civilian employment in Santa Barbara. He has been serving as a recruiting officer in the coastal city since April of 1954 except for one year when the station was closed.

He has served in Naval personnel and counseling. He was in the Pacific during World War II and served on amphibious type ships and later as a chief signalman in hydrographic work in the arctic.

Ladies to Sell Handwork Items

Handwork items suitable for holiday giving have kept the members of the Ladies Missionary Council of the Torrance First Assembly of God Church busy for the past few weeks and will go on sale Saturday at 1407 Cravens Ave., according to Mrs. Jean Ballengee, chairman of the event.

The public will find items of needlework, fancy aprons, children's clothes, and doll clothes. Proceeds from the event will go to the building fund of the church.

Doors will open at 10 a.m. and the bazaar will continue until 4 p.m.

HC Students Seek Holiday Employment

Many competent and qualified Harbor College students will be available for part and full-time employment during the Christmas holiday season, according to F. James Clines, college coordinator of vocational education and placement.

Jobs which students are seeking cover a wide range of occupations. Typical jobs are typists, sales clerks, helpers, operators, service station attendants, drivers, box boys, bus boys, cashiers and stock clerks.

Although many employers make a practice of calling the college for help there are usually more students looking for jobs than there are jobs available.

Harbor College will close for the Christmas holiday period on Dec. 14, and will resume classes on Jan. 2, 1963. Students will be available for full time employment during this period which would include the year-end inventory of many businesses.

Employers may obtain further information from Mr. Clines or Mrs. Olga Purcell at the college placement office, TE 4-8581.
